The Lord loves to use "the weak things" and "things that are despised." He loves to put the treasure of His grace into the feeble, that the world may be compelled to ask, "Whence hath this man power?"—Dr. J. H. JOWETT.

IN EPISCOPAL CIRCLES.

The Rev. Dr. Henry H. Meyer was yesterday elected director of the Sunday school publications of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He will take the place of Dr. John T. McFarland, who died last December. The book committee filed the vacancy at a meeting in the rooms of the Methodist Book Concern, at No. 150 Fifth avenue.

The editor directs the training of more than four million students in the Sunday schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church. For the last twelve years Dr. Meyer has been assistant editor of the publications.

He was born in Illinois on November 2, 1871, and is a graduate of the German and Wallace College, at Berea, Ohio, and the Drew Theological Seminary, at Madison, N. J. He took up postgraduate work in philosophy and pedagogy in Columbia and in German universities. From 1892 to 1895 he was a teacher in the public schools of California. For two years he was pastor of the German Methodist Church of Wilmington, Cal., and in 1901 he became a member of the faculty of St. Paul College, St. Paul, Minn.

For the last three years, in addition to his work as assistant editor, he has been secretary of the Sunday School Council of Evangelical Denominations in the United States and Canada. He is secretary of the Commission on Christian Education of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. For the last ten years he has written the Handbook of the International Sunday School Lesson.

The Rev. Dr. Sheridan Watson Bell, of Hamilton, Ohio, will begin to work in the pastorate of Washington Square Methodist Church, in this city, succeeding there the Rev. Dr. P. M. Watters, who moves South to become a college president. Dr. Bell is one of several new Methodist pastors to begin work to-morrow, and there remain vacant an important Methodist pulpit, St. Andrew's, on the West Side.

Dr. Bell is an Ohioan by birth, and was educated at Ohio Wesleyan College and has studied in the School of Philosophy in this city. He leaves a parish having more than one thousand members to come to downtown Manhattan, into a field that saw greater days years ago. He is expected to start new plans, and to many this field appears a promising one again in spite of discouragements.

Next Thursday morning will be consecrated by Bishop Green, assisted by the clergy staff of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the new Whitling Memorial Chapel of the cathedral. This is one of the seven chapels that surround the sanctuary. It is intended for the Italian rite and is to be known officially as the St. Ambrose Chapel. It is next to the Bishop of the Cathedral, and was given by Mrs. George L. Rives, wife of the ex-corporation Counsel of the city. The cost is about $100,000. The Potter Chapel is nearing completion, and work on the Huntington Chapel is progressing.

Bishop Cusack will dedicate to-morrow the new Paulist Church at Inwood. Its exact location is Broadway and 20th st., and its name is the Church of the Good Shepherd. The cost of the structure has been $35,000, and built of concrete. It is so planned and located that later it may become a parochial school and parish house, with ample space for the parish church itself. While Paulists have many branch lines of work elsewhere, and their fathers are engaged in many quarters, this is the first extension in this city. Their great parish is at Columbus ave. and 60th st. Now a new Paulist parish is growing up. For some time a basement has been used, but so rapid has been the growth of Inwood popula-

The Riches of God's Kindness

Wouldst thou know the riches of God's kindness to thee? Then ask not that great things be given thee, but even to see them and a willingness to do the little things which in thy pathway lie. Be thou in the spirit of fellowship with Him who giveth thee all things "richly to enjoy." With open eyes thou shalt see His kindness in every dewdrop; it shall shine forth with every morning light and beam with glory with every evening shade. Look around thee, for the earth is filled with His kindness; every rose has its fragrance and its cheeks are blushed with beauty all for thee. He fills the world with His light and heat, and bringeth forth the fruits in their season all for thee. He giveth thee life and offereth thee eternal life. Thou partakest of His bread for life for thy body. Then shalt thou see and know His kindness to be boundless and the riches of it to be infinite.—G. Lusty.
